Letter from the PRINCIPAL

You cannot dream yourself into a character: you must hammer and forge yourself into one.

—Henry D. Thoreau

As you take the initial steps towards the next part of your journey into life, never lose grips with the reality that everything you will encounter will take hard work. As Thoreau states in the quote above, "you must hammer and forge" yourself into a quality character. Imagine a blacksmith hammering and forging a piece of steel into a useful tool; it takes sweat and muscle to forge the steel successfully. Hard work will always prevail. All too often, people choose to take the easy path and end up behind rather than ahead. Stay focused and be prepared to manage the more difficult times like the blacksmith forging searing hot steel. Life is a balance of the positive and negative, made easier by your willingness to work hard. This hard work is most beneficial if you expend the energy of that work in the form of preparation by attaining skills and being persistent in the production of the highest quality results. You are responsible for your own success.

It has been my privilege to spend the last four years with the members of the Class of 2012. The future, although sometimes scary and unknown, is limitless. Within your ranks may be the person who invents the next important change in the world. "Hammer and forge" solid foundations and stand firm on the knowledge you take from your time at WHS. Set lofty goals and always reach for the stars, for someday, they won't be so far away. I am proud of you and look forward to the impact you will have on the future. I will miss you all!

The 2012 Hourglass Yearbook is dedicated to

Ms. Linda Peters

Devotion. It's a simple idea, but requires more patience than most people have. It requires a passion that comes from within—a zest for life and a love for your career. Since 1974, Math teacher and Curriculum Team Leader Ms. Linda Peters has dedicated her life to Wilmington Public School's staff and students.

To most people, Ms. Peters is a quiet and seemingly no-nonsense math teacher who has certainly had her fair share of experience in everything from algebra to calculus. Her students, however, know that's not quite the case. While she may be reserved, she has just as much personality as your typical Zumba guru, and then some. Her witty remarks and occasional tangents add humor to a rigorous academic class.

Ms. Peters is one of the most devoted teachers at Wilmington High School—she's here at six-thirty every morning and doesn't leave until seven or eight o'clock most nights. She rarely misses school, and when she does, it's often for a workshop or meeting. She always sees the potential in her students, even though they may not feel as confident. Ms. Peters is committed to helping her students succeed now and for years to come.

Thank you, Ms. Peters, for your commitment and dedication to the Wilmington community. For over 37 years, you've taught thousands of students and inspired them to achieve, succeed and pave the way for future generations.

"From teaching to writing, you've passed the test,
Your dedication has placed you above the rest."

—from Ms. Peter's poem, In Your Honor

DEDICATION

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Nothing will ever compare to the feeling we all got walking through the doors of Wilmington High School on the first day of our freshman year. Not only were there new teachers, new faces, and new rules, but we also had to learn how to be a lot more independent and responsible and act appropriately with the freedom that we were given.

Although freshman year was a huge transition to completely new surroundings, the Class of 2012 entered the high school with a bang. Class elections initiated the year, electing President Phil Lentini, Vice President Steve Le, Treasurer James Mara, and Secretary Kristin Esdale. As the United States elected its first African American president, the year was also memorable for the H1N1 epidemic as well as the tragic death of the King of Pop, Michael Jackson. As the year progressed, the Class of 2012 witnessed their first Spirit Week with Superhero Day as the class theme. The Class of 2012 was excited with all of the new experiences of high school. With the help of the class advisor, Miss Bortone, the officers thought of great ideas for fundraisers that would kick off their journey through high school. Towards the end of the year the class planned the traditional Spring Fling, which was a phenomenal hit! As the Class of 2012 became comfortable in the school, there was no doubt that they were going to achieve great things and accomplish all of their goals.

The Class of 2012 had an unforgettable sophomore year. Despite the dreaded sophomore research paper, everyone enjoyed the year. Steve Le moved up a notch to Presidency and newly elected Lisamarie DiOrio took office as Vice President while Kristen Esdale served as Treasurer. Fundraisers began successfully with the sales of Blow Pops and continued throughout the year for different events. Haiti was struck with a traumatizing natural disaster, and students reached out to help by donating what they could. The Gulf of Mexico was also hit with tragedy with the occurrence of the BP oil spill. On the bright side, people from around the globe gathered together to watch the FIFA World Cup. As the year wound down, the class officers began recruiting class representatives to help with the major events for junior and senior year.

Junior year is known to be an important stepping-stone, and for the Class of 2012 it was. The class was busy with SATs and ACTs, college explorations, and scholarship applications. Wilmington High School's varsity field hockey team made it to states for the first time in nineteen years. During Spirit Week, the class had fun playing up the theme of Celebrity Day. The class elected new officers: President Beatrice Banda, Treasurer Jennifer Stewart, and Secretary Kelley Wilcox onto the team with Vice President Lisamarie DiOrio. The officers soon began working to plan an unforgettable prom. The team went into full throttle planning restaurant fundraisers and raffles. The Fall Market fundraiser was successful and fun for all of the volunteers that helped. The year culminated to a bumpin' Junior Prom at the Burlington Marriott in March. For the first time in years, the weather was sunny, breezy, and perfect for the event, with no snow or rain. The class got to witness the Royal Wedding, and on a darker note, the death of the infamous Osama Bin Laden. With the last year of high school approaching, students took advantage of the Ecuador trip, and the Class of 2012 enjoyed their last summer vacation while in high school.

Senior year for the Class of 2012 was an epic and extraordinarily successful year. Students rejoiced with the introduction of the new cell phone policy thanks to the Student Ambassadors, and everyone jumped to take advantage of the rule. In addition, the 9/11 Memorial Committee was created as a club, and the year stepped into full swing. Elected as officers were President, Derek Mayo; Vice President, Shelley Sullivan; Treasurer, Nikkia Marcin; and Secretary, Kelley Wilcox. Mrs. Burns was a wonderful addition to the team as well, and was welcomed as a new class advisor working together with Ms. Bortone. Together the officers dove into the planning process and brainstormed many fundraisers. The first was incredibly successful with the sales of feather hair extensions. Other restaurant fundraisers followed, as well as the sale of senior class sweatshirts and t-shirts. The officers put a twist on superlatives later in the year by creating teacher superlatives to compliment the students' favorites. The Senior Prom at Danversport Yacht Club on May 4th was definitely the highlight of the year. The stress from applying to colleges and awaiting acceptance had finally melted away and the seniors were free to enjoy themselves with graduation right around the corner. Other senior events such as the Senior Banquet, Senior Night, and the Senior Breakfast brought the Class of 2012 together for the last time. As the town prepared for a new high school, the seniors appreciated being the last class to use the gym. Outside of the walls of Wilmington High School, the Occupy Boston campaign simmered down as well as the divorce of Kim Kardashian and the Casey Anthony Trial. It was a whirlwind of a year and certainly one the Class of 2012 will not forget.

The Class of 2012 has had an enormous impact on Wilmington High School with their tremendous success and achievements over just four short years. Every student has grown and matured, and are ready to spread their wings when they enter the real world. Nothing will ever compare to the feeling we all got while walking out the doors of the high school on our last day of senior year. Not only are there going to be unfamiliar faces and no rules, we are going to have to learn to be even more independent and responsible and act appropriately with the freedom we are given.

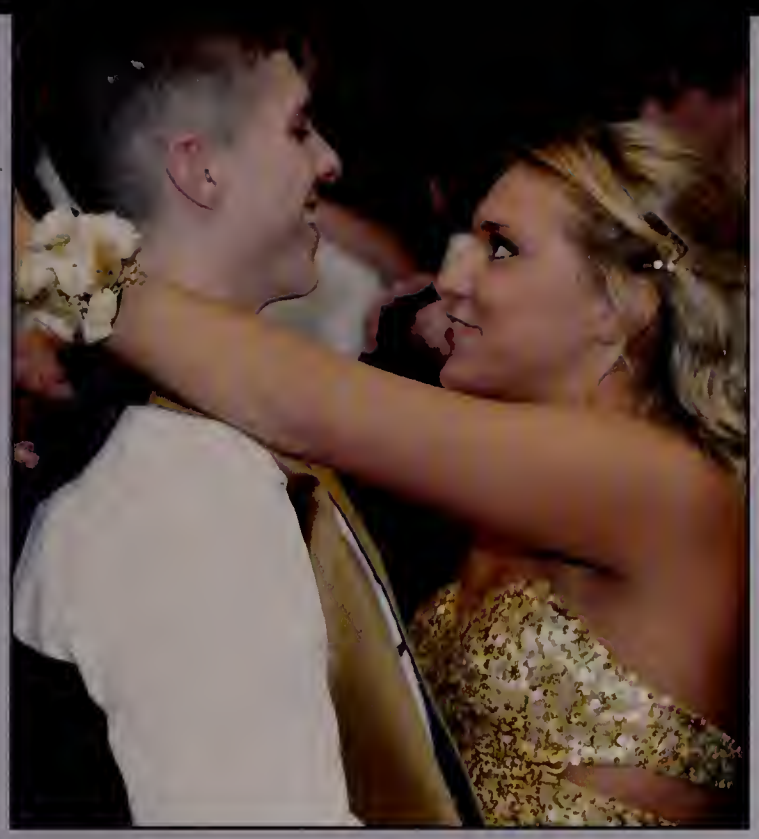
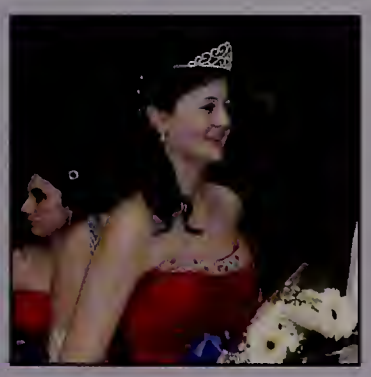
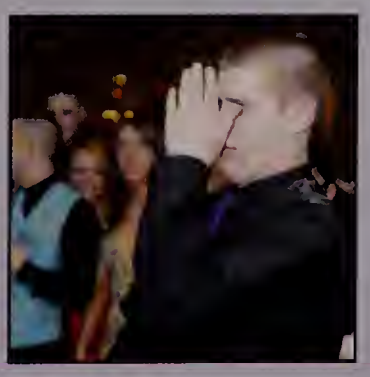
Junior Prom

On March 18, 2011 the Class of 2012 spent their Junior Prom at the Burlington Marriot. The ladies took their time to get ready and glamorous, the guys waited until the last minute to suit up (yet still looked like gentlemen), and mothers recharged their camera batteries for all the photo memories they could capture. Besides the numerous photos taken that night, there were hours of dancing to enjoy, many delicious foods to be eaten, and most importantly, lasting memories being made for each guest. Everyone looked dashing in their prom gowns and tuxedos, and even the teachers looked great all dressed up for the occasion.

As Class of 2012 finished their meals and danced their hearts out, teachers began to set up for the prom court. It was announced that Cole Peffer, Kristen Esdale, Alex Furlong, Courtney Cavanaugh, Dalton Rolli, and Kelly Fitzpatrick were chosen for the court. As they all walked to the front of the dance floor to claim their chairs, everyone waited for the crowning of the King and Queen. With great celebration from the crowd, Zack Frost and Megan Stinson were crowned as the Class of 2012 Junior Prom King and Queen. For some it may have just been some high school prom, but for the members of the Class of 2012, the memory of this evening will last a lifetime.





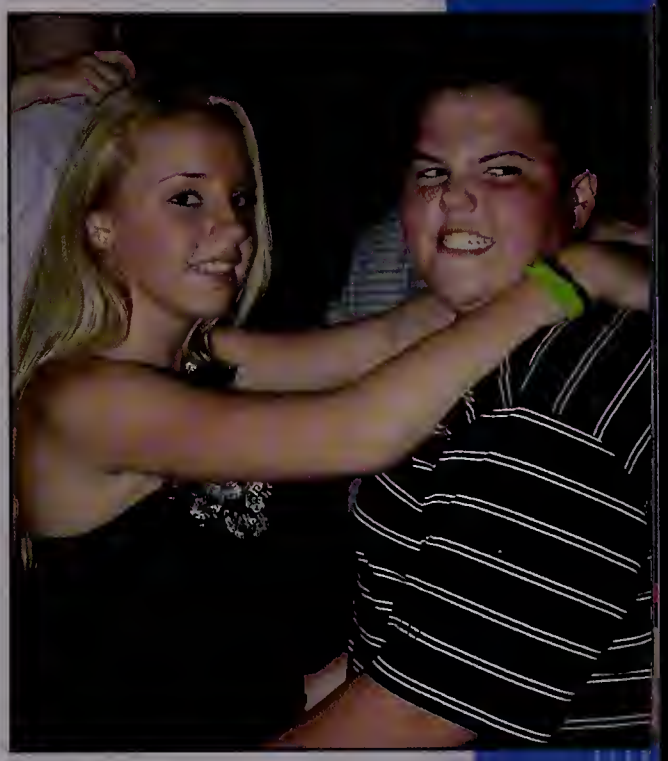


March 2011

As WHS tradition holds, Homecoming was the very first dance of the new school year. Everyone, including Alumni, gets excited for the night as it's a fun way to get the year going and to catch up with friends. Girls often sport dark colors for the fall season, while the guys dress up in shirt and tie. With hours of music and mingling, the crowd danced the night away to the fun music the DJ played.

This year's Homecoming court was comprised of five boys and five girls from the Class of 2012: Robby Sutera, Jamie Mara, Cole Peffer, Ed DeLucia, Steve Le, Rebecca Robichard, Kelley Wilcox, Emily Arvanitis, Nikkia Marcin and Taylor Shelton. The Homecoming King was Phil Lentini and the Queen was Marianna Tassone. Homecoming kicked off a great start to our 2011-2012 school year.

Homecoming

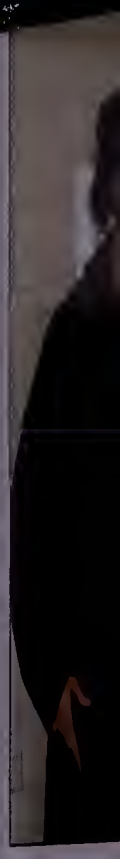


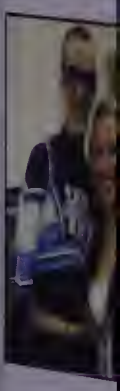
Fall 2011

To kick off this year's Spirit Week was the always highly anticipated Class Day. Class Day gives each grade to show off their spirit and to compete with the other classes to see which one put in the most effort. Each class came up with their own personal idea for what every person in their grade should dress up as, and it started with the freshman who chose Saga Day, which required the selected character to be from a trilogy or other multi-part film or literary series. It was safe to say that Superman and Spiderman were walking the halls of WHS on Class Day! Sophomores chose Animal Day, and there was no shortage of bunny ears and tiger costumes roaming around school. You could also find doctors, police officers, and taxi drivers, as the juniors went with Career Day. The upperclassmen really went all out this school year as not only could you see the working class strutting around, but also you could find the senior class, who chose always popular Costume Day. Costume Day is a classic day during Spirit Week at WHS, and the senior's did it justice by wearing the most creative and random costumes they could find. Spirit Week is famous for having loads of kids participating to get them pumped for the school year, and Class Day 2011 was no exception!

Spirit Week

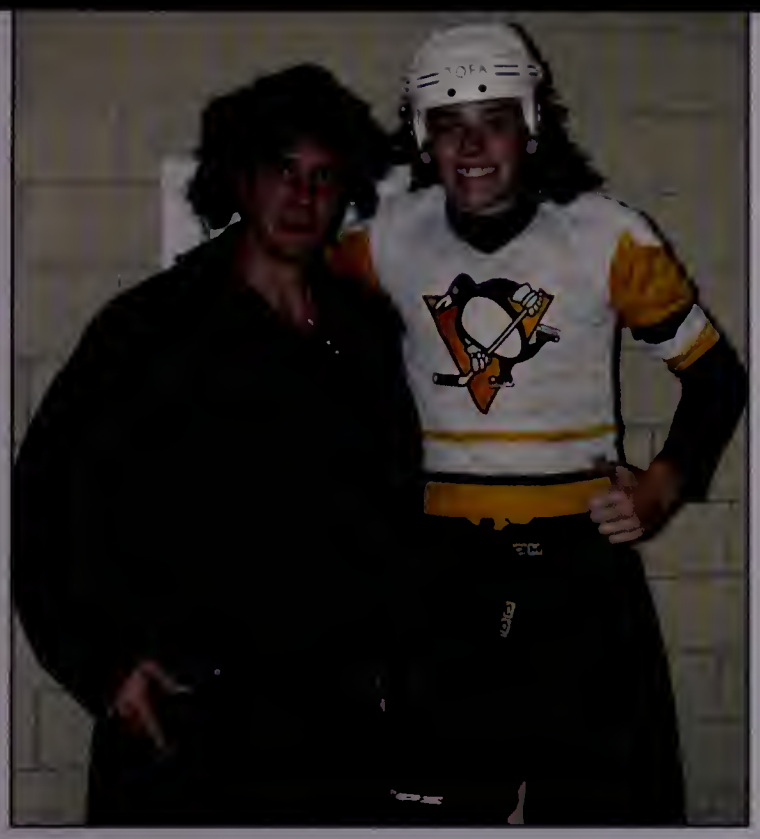
Class Day

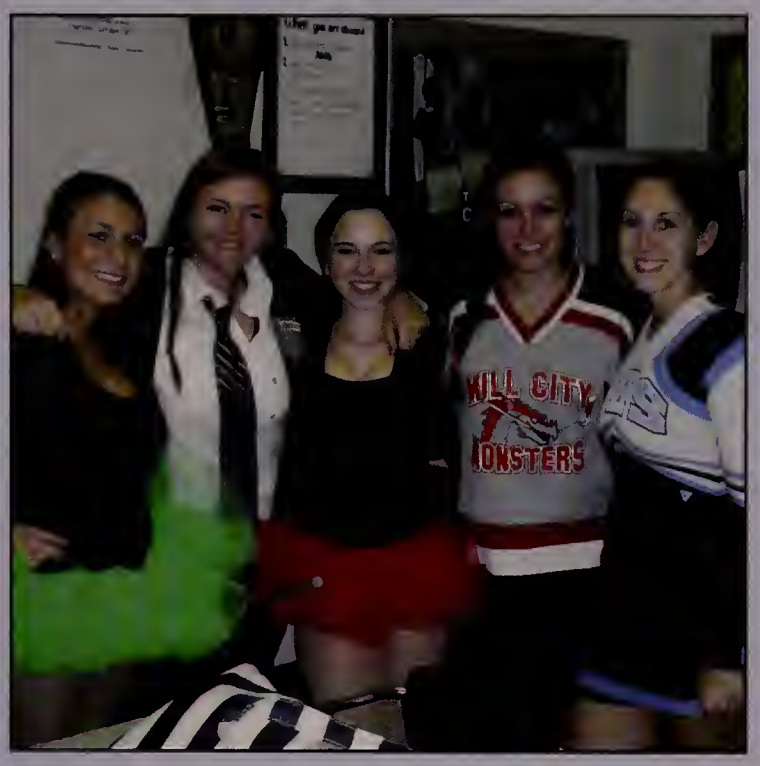


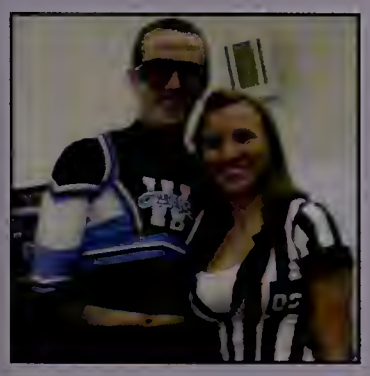


During Spirit week at WHS, students are always looking forward to Sports Day. Sports day is a day where students and faculty can show off their true colors for their favorite sports teams; whether it's for the high school sports teams or even a professional team that they enjoy. Student athletes are able to show off the teams they represent and the super fans can show off the teams they cheer for. Sports day is one of the days that seem permanent during spirit week. Every year a high percentage of students participate in the day. This day shows how much our student body and faculty are dedicated to our local and professional sports teams. If you walk through the halls of WHS on sports day, nearly every student is participating in their own way. You see students ranging from jerseys to full out uniforms which can be rather funny at times. Sports day is a day that has gone on for a very long time and has been successful through out the years of spirit week at WHS, and will continue for many years to come.

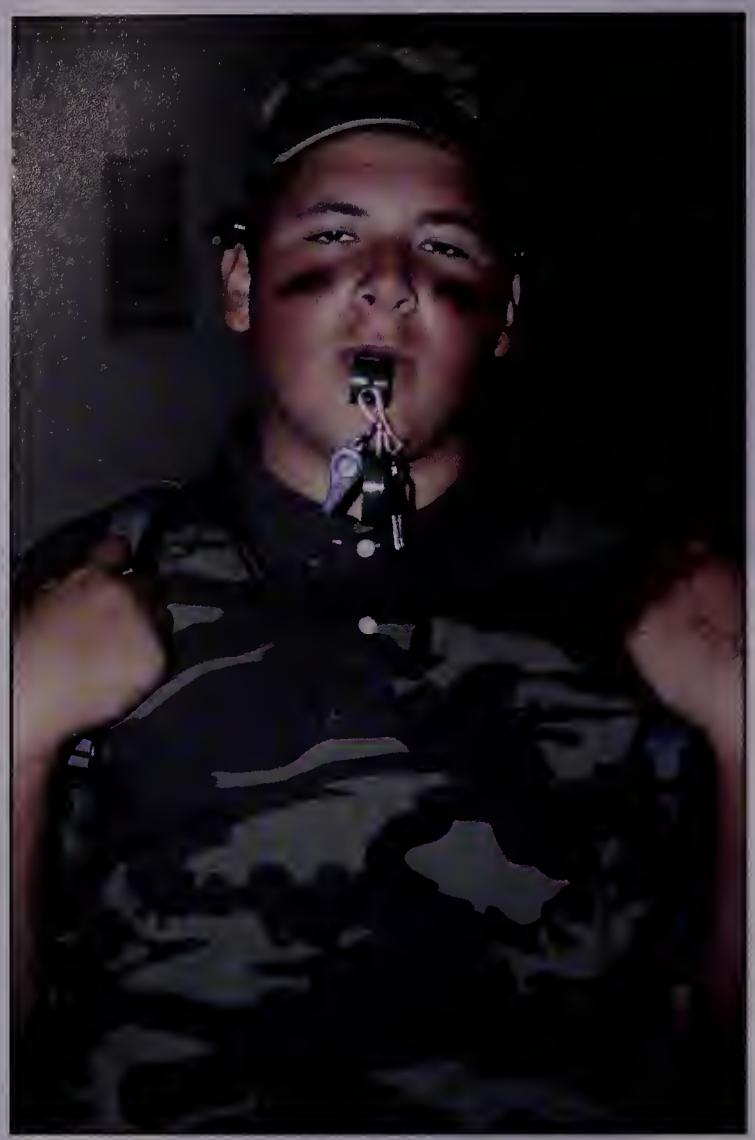
Spirit Week





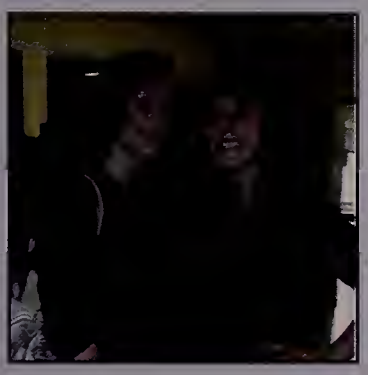


Sports Day



On October 13th , 2011 the spirited students and faculty of Wilmington High School showed off there patriotic side by wearing military attire. The students showed there respect for all those who have given their lives to our country and for the soldiers who are still currently serving our nation. Students dressed in an array of clothes from camouflage shirts and pants to combat boots; there were even some lucky students who had located authentic Army, Navy, or Marine uniforms proudly wear all day.

Spirit Week



Military Day

Blue and White Day is the final day of our spirit week. It is most definitely the favorite of them all. Everyone gets to show their school spirit and their wildcat pride through their outrageous and witty appearance. All students come to school dressed in their blue and white clothes, costumes, jewelry, and accessories. Everyone goes all out in their most outrageous gear. You can spot kids with painted faces and blue and white wigs everywhere. Blue and white day is taken very seriously at our high school. If you're not dressed up, it is safe to say you will be treated like an outcast. This day is the craziest and favorite day of the whole year for many students. At the end of the week the administration gives awards to the favorite outfits of each day and the most important awards go to the blue and white day champions. The end to spirit week is always a truly memorable one for all the students especially the seniors. The final blue and white day is an important moment that they may look back on and talk about for years to come. Go Wildcats!

B&W Day

Blue & White

In the end it's right, I hope you had the time of your life.

Seniors 2012

During ones time at Wilmington High School, one will experience many events and programs all contributing to the overall high school experience. Wilmington has prided itself on having the most school spirit, which was exhibited in one of the most exciting and entertaining events of the year; Mr. and Ms. WHS. This event was filled with hilarious moments, impressive talents, and a pair of MC's who kept the night moving along very smoothly. One MC in particular dazzled the crown with his third and final installment of his WHS rap, ending the short yet sweet career of Phil Lentini's high school raps. In the end it was the talents and spirit of two individuals who came out on top with the crowns; Sarah Luz, and Mike Semonelli. Their acts were memorable, procuring raucous cheering as well as laughter from the crowd. This night was surely one to remember, and will go down as one of the most entertaining Mr. and Ms. WHS competitions in recent history!

Dodgeball Tour

November 14 and 16 were two glorious days for a Dodge Ball tournament. The after school forecast was a chilly 52 degrees with a 100% chance of "Team Nightmare" dominance. Coached by Dan D'Arcangelo, the combination of strength and good looks of Phil Lentini, Zack Reed, Tim McCarthy, Jamie Mara, Vinny Scifo, and Zach Anderson led to nothing but dodge ball excellence. The rules of the tournament were simple; eliminate all opponents. WHS's Junior class officers did a wonderful job of setting up and executing the tournament. On Monday the 14th, each team was placed on a bracket in a one loss elimination set up. The final four teams were invited to play in the High School gymnasium for the consolation and championship games. Whatever team emerged the victor would be put to the test against a team assembled of the elite dodge ball WHS staff. Team Nightmare and the staff played two games against each other splitting the wins evenly. To this day, most people still fantasize about how that third, deciding game would have went. The world may never know. Overall, the first annual Wilmington High School Dodge Ball tournament was a success and everyone had a blast watching and competing.

"Ugly" Holiday

In the weeks leading up to Christmas vacation, the mood around the school became festive, with hints of holiday cheer popping up everywhere. During the final week, some students went out of their way to dress in their most festive (and in many cases, ugly) holiday sweaters. The designs were a mix of colors and patterns, sampling such styles like 1970 ski sweaters, ranging to the more intricately laced and bauble covered zip-ups. Some of the teachers even got involved, showing their pride for their holiday moods. The end result was an impressive array of sweaters full of teddy bears and Santa Clause's, presents and figure skaters, filling the school with holiday cheer before the students left for break.

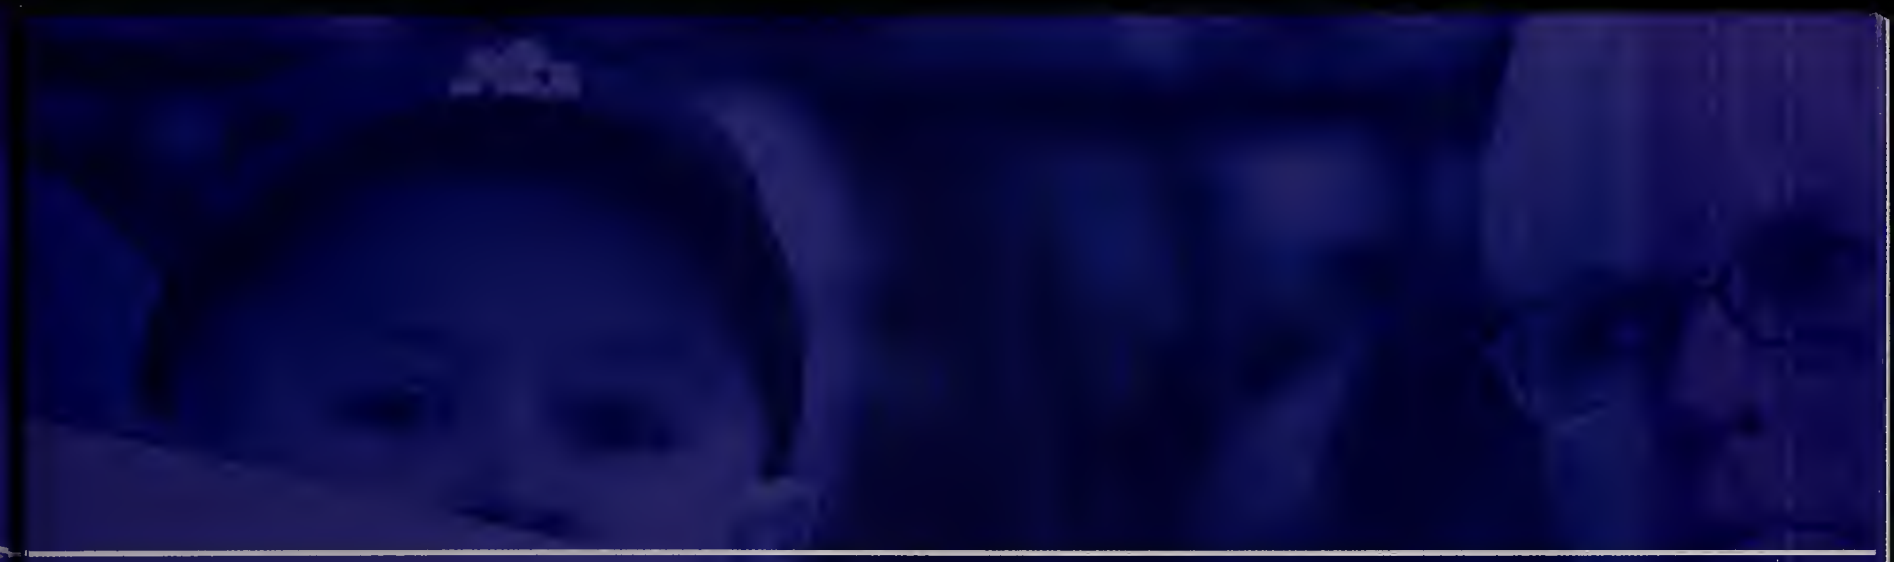
a WHS sports rap (2011)

Written by Phil Lentini
Performed by Phil Lentini and Steven Le
at the Thanksgiving Day Pep Rally

Call me Tim
Mccarthy 'cause im balling
Taking a bunch of shots
And these shots are falling
3rd and long and
I got the ball, I'm calling
Wildcat O, run it in like John Parsons
Yo, I'll swat your shot like Cole
Hit the links, Keough
Slamming on the rim like Vinny Scifo
Yeah, you know I ball so hard
Score the goal like Rach Grabar, throw TDs like Ferreira
Playing lockdown D like my name's Tom Broman
Fight conspiracy with my man Dan Collins
Fever pitch, just call me Nicole Lunt
Blocking every shot you take just like Sarah Luz
Spike mad serves call me Jamie Mara, tee off on the course like Steve Taylor
Base hit up the middle, my names Crannel, can't do what I do so I say oh well
Oh well, oh well, oh well, I say
Hitting homeruns like Dalton Rolli
I'm like Creedon danglin on my skates
'Bout to lead my team to Middlesex states

VARSITY SPORTS



Take a shot, you need to
But I'll snag that shot like Siegel
Looking at the net
Pull up three like Kyle Peach do
Ripping boards like Albs
Its astounding, rebounding
Holy moley Trevor Foley
Netting snipes right past the goalie
The crowds cheering on the team
Making Thanksgiving games feel like million dollar dreams
Teeing off on the course like my name's Dan Keane
Then I take you down like Furlong and I make the fans scream

I lead my team, Zach A
Scorin' in the clutch you can call me Willy
When I'm on the track I'm just like Jake
I'm winnin, yeah we winnin, winnin like Charlie
Sheen, my game's really mean
I do it like Big Sean when it's all about my team
Got my band playin, just like Bleier
I'm way to hot, bout to catch that fire

I'll bump the shot like Hollenbeck
Past the net 'til it hits the floor, that's a point for cats
Block intruders like I'm sick of them
Fiddling with the D line like the Kikkian
I'm too fast, call me Eddy
Running down the field, make defenders legs spaghetti
In field hockey call me Newhouse
Captain of my team, I'm afraid your team will lose out
You're going south, Wilmington is up top
We're the best, arguments of that are always unsaid
Left Cape Ann bout to run Middlesex
I am Phil Lentini and this rap is finished

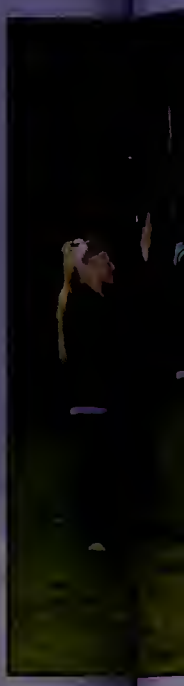
Head Coach: Michael Barry



The football team came into the 2011 season coming off a strong 8-3 record from the year before. Returning many players on offense and defense, the team's future looked bright. Led by captains John Parsons and Alex Furlong, the team went into their first game with the spark and determination to have another great season. The faced the daunting task of challenging the Middlesex League after leaving the Cape Ann. They would go on to a 4-1 record in the league, with their only loss coming to the Middlesex powerhouse, Wakefield. On defense, the Wildcats were strong on the line, tearing across and gaining sacks game after game. The secondary proved strong as well, gaining over 200 tackles over the season. The offensive line returned many starters from the season past, giving them an edge over their opponents. The Wildcat backfield was a force, with a strong ground game and a threatening game in the air. The resulting forces helped the Wildcats secure a spot in the Middlesex league, proving to all that they were a worthy contender. For the seniors, their last season was a great one, with solid victories over some very impressive teams, including long time threat Masconomet, and a nail biter that came down to the last minute against Burlington. They were leaders on an off the team leading a helping hand to the underclassmen in every aspect of the game. As they depart from the high school and head on with their lives, may they have good luck and know that they will be missed!

FOOTBALL

CHEERING

The Varsity Cheerleaders demonstrated their support during the fall and winter seasons cheering for the football and basketball teams in addition to performing at the Thanksgiving game pep rally.

This year's fall squad was led by co-captains Lauren Powers and Paige Tonra as well as Seniors Lindsay Hydorn, Janelle Jackson, Kelly McGowan, Leandra Murphy and Lauren Stalker. Following in the tradition of former Wilmington cheerleaders, they worked very hard to prepare for competitions where they showcased outstanding skills and talent.

After a successful switch from the Cape Ann League into the Middlesex League, the Wilmington Wildcat boys soccer team didn't know what to expect. After starting out the season slow, the team finished 6-6-6 and went undefeated in the last 7 games before the tournament. They reached the tournament as the 23 ranked seed and lost a tight 2-1 game against Stoneham. The team was lead by captains Jamie Mara, Phil Lentini, and Zach Anderson. Having only 4 senior starters, the team shows a lot of promise for the next years. Jamie Mara, Phil Lentini and junior Colin Doherty were recognized on the Lowell Sun 2nd All Star Team. Overall, it was a successful season and congratulations to the team.

The Girls Varsity Soccer team entered the competitive Middlesex League this year, and it brought many challenges. New teams, new players, and a new formation gave the Wildcats a fresh start. With only a few additions, the team was experienced and prepared to face any foe. With an impressive record of 10-5-4 the girls successfully qualified for the tournament. Leading the team were captains Rachel Grabar, Sarah Luz, and Alexa Brown, along with seniors Michaela D'Ambrosio, Taylor Shelton, and Paige Bennett. The talented squad had one of the best records throughout the past years, and hopes to set an example for the upcoming seniors.

The Field Hockey Team had an impressive season this year. With a 13-5-2 record the team made it to the second round of the State Tournament. Led by captains Courtney Cavanaugh, Cristina Wilson and Ryanne Newhouse the team was a strong force. None of the team's accomplishments would have been possible if they weren't coached by Jodi Campbell. The team's greatest achievement was tying the number one seed Watertown 2-2 after losing 6-2 in the previous meeting. Knowing that the Watertown team has had a strong program for many years the team was ecstatic when they tied the team who ended up winning the State Tournament. ALL-STARS include: Cristina Wilson, Courtney Cavanaugh, and Shelley Sullivan.

GOLF

Boys Varsity Golf made their premier appearance in the Middlesex league and finished with a very respectable 6-7 season record and a winning league record of 4-1. Led by senior captains John Keough and Dalton Rolli, the Wildcats started the season not having much experience with match play, however, they adapted well to the new league rules and scoring. The team qualified for the state tournament for the third straight year under Coach Steve Lynch. Along with John and Dalton, seniors Dan Keane and Steve Taylor were strong leaders on the team. Juniors Matt Chiricosta, Matt Boutoures, Jeff Favuzza and sophomore Ryan McEvoy were all key contributors. It was a transitional year for the team and they all had a good season putting in 100% effort every day. In recognition of his fine play, Keough was named a League All Star. The golf team would like to thank Coach Lynch and Chris Carter from Hillview Country Club for all their contributions throughout the year.

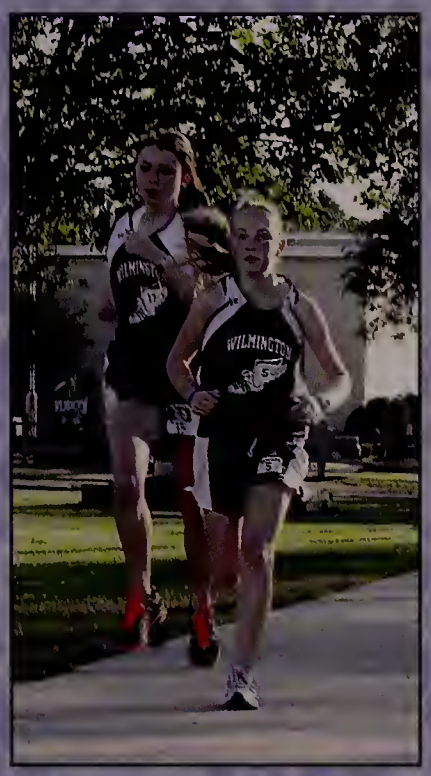
Entering the Middlesex League brought interesting experiences for the Wildcat Boys Cross Country team. This year was a learning experience for the boys, as they traversed new courses, and faced new competition.

Led by Captains Andrew Sears, Steve Halas, and Chris Monteforte, the team posted a 2-5 record with some very close finishes. Newcomers Erik Alatalo and David Swider each had strong seasons, as Alatalo and Halas would go on to be League All- Stars.

The Boys will look ahead to next year as they are only losing 3 seniors, and hope to come back with same great work ethic.

S COUNTRY



The 2011 season for the Girls Cross Country team was one of its best seasons, especially considering it was the first year in the Middlesex League. They finished with an impressive overall record of 4-3.

The Girls had a very young team this year with no seniors. Juniors Savannah Hubbard and Kate Richardson stepped up to lead the squad as captains. Strong runners Sydnee Russo and Callie O'Connell had good years. The team is looking forward to next year and hopes to better their record further with experience of returning all their runners.

Losing five seniors along with entering a new league, the Wilmington Wildcat Varsity Volleyball team had many obstacles to face at the start of their 2011 season. The team devoted much of their time to pre-season workout sessions and volleyball camps to prepare themselves. At tryouts their hard work was quite apparent when everyone appeared in top shape and ready to play. The team's leadership was provided by senior captains, Caitlin McDonough and Robin Hollenbeck. Seniors also included Kelley Wilcox, Lauren Sullivan, Emma Saporito, Ashley White, and Kerry Murphy. The team continued to work hard throughout the season and finished with a 6-14 record. Many of their losses came in nail-biting five game sets, so the record does not give the team as much credit as they deserve. One of the highlights of the season was beating Belmont in the fifth game of a very close match.

Off the court, the team enjoyed many bonding experiences with numerous team dinners and hosting the Dig Pink fundraiser supporting breast cancer awareness and research. This will be an unforgettable season for the Wildcat Volleyball Program. It could not have been successful without the dedication of Coaches Ms. Sheehy and Ms. Magee. The interest in volleyball at Wilmington high school is on the rise, so you can look forward to even more success from this program in the upcoming years.

The Boys Wrestling team had a very productive year in which they participated in several meets with new towns in the Middlesex league. Captain Alex Furlong helped play a pivotal role in the season in which the team showed great heart, determination and enthusiasm. They had a good season and look forward to next year.

The Wilmington boys basketball team had a successful season under head coach Joe Maiella, finishing with an overall 8-12 record, 5-5 in the Middlesex League small school division. This inaugural year competing in the Middlesex league had both high and low points for the boys basketball team. They struggled in the beginning but then reeled off four straight wins and fought hard throughout the entire season. As expected, competition was tough but the Wildcats never gave up and kept pushing on through. The season may not have ended the way people had hoped it would, but it was still a year to remember.

Wilmington's Tim McCarthy and Kyle Albanese received special recognition for their outstanding performances by being named Middlesex All-League. McCarthy and Albanese were both captains along with Vin Scifo who sadly missed most of the season due to an injury ending his quest for 1,000 career points. Along with these three seniors, there were five others who had storied basketball careers. These players were Phil Lentini, Jamie Mara, John Parsons, Kyle Peach and Cole Peffer. It was an unforgettable season for the whole team. Next year's squad looks promising with a strong group of juniors returning. The seniors will be missed but wish the boys good luck next year.

Competing in a new league for the 2011-2012 season, the Wildcat Girl's Basketball team played their way to the semi-finals of the state tournament and an overall record of 18-5. The girls finished 1st in the small school division of the Middlesex League and are now able to hang a championship banner for the first time in fifty years. With two huge home court victories over Waltham and Gloucester in the first and second rounds of the tournament, they earned the chance to face Arlington Catholic. Although the girls lost that game, their impressive record and Middlesex League Championship cannot be overlooked.

In addition to a stellar season against local competition, the girl's team traveled to Florida over Christmas break for a once in a lifetime opportunity to play in a Holiday tournament. They returned home with a second place trophy and memories they will have forever.

This year's team was led by senior co-captains, Emily Cranell and Jennifer Stewart with significant contributions from fellow seniors Meghan Stinson, Cristina Wilson, and Sarah Luz. Two members of the Wilmington team earned individual Middlesex honors as Emily Cranell was named League MVP and both Cranell and Stewart were named League All Stars. With all the success, memories and friendships made this year, it will truly be a season none of them will ever forget.

IND

The 2011-2012 Boys Indoor Track team finished 1-5 on the season. However, three meets were incredibly close, with the Wildcats losing by only about 3-5 points. There were many excellent individual performances. More than 10 athletes qualified for the Division III State Championship meet. Two athletes even qualified for the All-State Meet as one of the top 24 athletes in their respective event in all of Massachusetts. There was also a Middlesex League Champion, and several athletes were voted Middlesex League All-Stars.

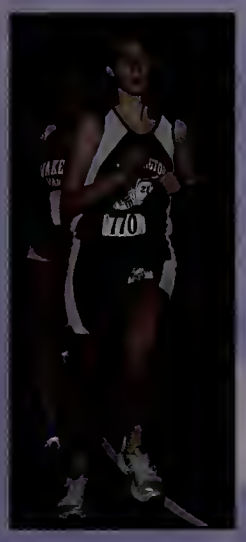
OOR TRACK



The girls indoor track team led by Senior captains Nichole Lunt and Melanie Folk and Junior captains Savannah Hubbard and Katelyn Richardson entered the new Middlesex League with much enthusiasm. The girls held their own against some very tough opponents and had many accomplishments to be proud of. Finishing with a league record of 2-3, they went on to place fourth in the Division III State Meet.

MVP of the team with the greatest number of individual points was senior Cali Peffer. Not far behind in overall points were Kelly Hartsough and Rachel Alatalo, who did a superb job all season. Peffer, Hartsough, Alatalo and Alex Bishoff made up the incredible 4x400 relay team. Their team event was the only one entered in the All-State meet. Ladies that qualified for States in their individual events were Nichole Lunt, Cali Peffer, Kelly Hartsough, Savannah Hubbard, Sydnee Russo, Rachel Alatalo and Alex Bishoff.

Kelly Hartsough earned individual recognition and was named Middlesex League All Star for the 1000 meter. In addition, the combined efforts of the 4x400 relay team earned them Middlesex League All Star honors as well. With the support and motivation of Coach Bradley and Coach Tracy the girls had a great season and should be proud of their accomplishments!

Everyone anticipated that Wilmington's opponents in the new Middlesex League were going to be much tougher than they were used to, especially in boys hockey. They certainly were, but that competition proved to be a critical factor as it prepared them for an exhilarating post season run that ended with the 2011-2012 Boys Hockey team finally attaining that elusive goal which all high school teams strive for - a State Championship.

Beginning the season without its starting offensive line, the Wildcats were still tough from the onset tying Division I Woburn in the final 21 seconds of a very exciting opening match up. As the season progressed, the battle between Wilmington, Burlington and Wakefield for the Middlesex Small title became very intense. It came down to the Wildcat's final league match up against Burlington in front of a packed house at the Ice Palace. Although Wilmington lost to Burlington and ended up in second place in the Middlesex League, they did not let this deter them from their quest for the bigger prize.

Finishing the regular season with a record of 11-4-5, Wilmington landed the eight seed in the Division II Tourney. The Wildcats stormed through the north sectional outscoring four opponents including top seeded Lynnfield by a total of 14-5. That set the stage for the big game, the one all little boys dream about when they start playing hockey. On an unseasonably warm March day, the bleach blonde Wildcats boarded the bus at Ristuccia one more time amidst their supportive families, friends and loyal fans known as the "seventh player", and were police escorted to Boston to face South Champion Franklin at the TD Garden. Although it was truly a team effort, Junior Cam Owens was star of the show with a hat trick leading the Wildcats to a thrilling 3-2 victory and claim of the state title for the first time in school history.

This year's team was led by Senior Captain Dalton Rolli and other seniors Frank Cerbone, Adam Siegel, Trevor Foley, Dan Creedon, Jim O'Neill and Jackie Mulrenan. Sophomore Drew Foley was stellar in net all season posting five shut outs including one during tourney play. Every player contributed to the success of this tight knit team and some individuals were recognized for their outstanding individual performances. Cam Owens was named Division II MIAA State Tournament MVP and Junior Defenseman Brian Pickett was selected Middlesex All League. Steve Scanlon was also recognized for his part in the Wildcat success and named Coach of the Year.

The Garden Party that started in Boston continued in Wilmington at the Knights of Columbus where family, friends, and fans gathered to celebrate with the team they were so proud of. It was a game, a day, a season that will be talked about for many years to come. Congratulations to this group of talented young men who will always be remembered as the 2011 - 2012 WHS State Championship Hockey team.

The Wilmington Academic Decathlon competes with teams of students from high schools across the state in a series of ten academic events. These events cover Economics, Language and Literature, Mathematics, Music, Fine Arts and Social Science. Students are given awards based both on individual and team achievements. A unique aspect of the program is that each nine-member team must consist of three students (decathletes) each with "A", "B" and "C" grade point averages. Students may be in any grade and an unlimited number of alternatives may also compete.

Club meetings focused on preparing students for leadership in careers in business, entrepreneurship, marketing, management, and hospitality. Students excelled in competition, succeeding in tests and role plays, with 44 students that moved on to state level competition. Life Skills DECA students participated in a Life Skills District competition. WHS DECA worked to organize fundraising events, including the yearly Glow Dance and Harlem Superstars game, to help support students as they advance in competition. This year's state winners supported the chapter and MA DECA at the Salt Lake City International Competition.

Throughout the years the WHS Interact club has grown to be one of the largest clubs WHS has to offer and one of the biggest Interact clubs in the nation. This year we enrolled 198 members. The club is open to all four grades. Among the annual events that the Interact Club participates in are the Wilmington Half-Marathon, held every September, Leaf-Raking for senior citizens in the fall, participation in the Rotary Auction and serving breakfast at the Wilmington Recreation Department's "Breakfast with Santa" held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Interact members also participate in several opportunities to serve meals to Senior Citizens at the Buzzell Center and Deming Way, as well as participate in the annual Wilmington Senior Trivia contest held every spring. The Club is proud to have helped with sponsoring and packing supplies for Local Heroes. With more than 10,700 Interact clubs in 109 countries, Interact has become a worldwide phenomenon. Almost 200,000 young people are involved in Interact. Rotary follows a simple statement: "Service Above Self." Students that belong to this club are a true testament to a long-standing tradition of Wilmington individuals who step forward to help others in need. They also build a solid foundation for future service to others, either as future Rotarians or as quality members of the Community.

SADD has had another successful year at Wilmington High School raising awareness about the risks and consequences of destructive decisions. This year's Executive Board members include Justin Bleier, Kaitlin Kinsella, Bea Banda, and Rachel Johansen. As an 84 Chapter, the group participates in Kick Butts Day, an annual event in Boston where students protest the tobacco industry's targeting of youth. Some of SADD's reoccurring activities include Red Ribbon Week and Grim Reaper Day, as well as safe prom activities. In another program called "SADD Social Solutions," SADD students from the high school perform skits in order to educate fifth graders about how to make positive social choices. This year, in collaboration with the Wildcat Project Task Force, SADD has sponsored several guest speakers and performances, and has assisted in planning the mandatory pre-prom meeting. The group had a very productive, eventful year and looks forward to continuing our mission in the future.
